Conner Strong & Buckelew Holds Inaugural Community Day at 11 Events Throughout Philadelphia Region

Leading Insurance Brokerage and Consultant Firm Gives Back to Local Communities With Companywide Day of Service

MARLTON, NJ, (June 10, 2013) – Conner Strong & Buckelew, a leading insurance, risk management and employee benefits brokerage and consulting firm, today announced that more than 150 company employees participated in the organization’s inaugural Community Day, held on Friday, June 7, 2013. Long recognized as a top corporate giver in the region, Conner Strong & Buckelew launched its Community Day to give back to the communities it serves through employee volunteerism in 11 community service projects throughout the tri-state region.

“At Conner Strong & Buckelew, making a difference in the communities where we live and work is something we take seriously. Since 1959, we’ve actively worked to help those in need, and hosting our own Community Day is another way for us to give back on a companywide level,” said George Norcross, Executive Chairman of Conner Strong & Buckelew. “With Community Day, we’re thrilled to be able to impact our local neighborhoods in a bigger and more meaningful way than ever before.”

On Community Day, the 150 Conner Strong & Buckelew employees volunteered at 11 neighborhood organizations throughout Camden, NJ; Philadelphia, PA; Toms River, NJ; Morristown, NJ; and Dover, DE. They participated in various projects, including painting classrooms, gardening, delivering food to the needy, leading arts and crafts projects, reading to children and more. The community service project locations are as follows:
